A TABLE FROM THE BEginning of the world to this day.

Wherein is declared in what yeere of the World every thing was done, both in the Scriptures mentioned, and also in prophane matters.

Written by that worthy member of the Church of God, M. IOHN MORE Preacher at Norwich.

Seene and allowed by publike authoritie.

Printed by IOHN LEGATE Printer to the Vniversitie of Cambridge.

And are to be sold at the signe of the Sunne in Pauls Churchyard in London. 1593.

TO THE RIGHT REVEREND FATHER IN GOD EDMOND Lord Bishop of Norwich, and to the Worshipfull M. Major of the same citie, with the Aldermen his brethren, the Sheriffes, and that whole corporation, The increase and continuance by all good meanes of that true godlines in Christ Iesus, which onely hath the promises of this life, and the life to come.

SEEING that by Gods providence the workes and laboures of this Reverend and Godly learned man came unto my handes, and not onely were committed unto me, but the whole care and diſpoſition of them by a certaine hereditarie right did fall unto me: I thought it my bounden duetie both to the dead, and eſpecially to the Church of God, that as much as did lye in me, they ſhould attaine unto that ende, for which principally they were begunne and ended by him: which was the greateſt profite and good, that by publiſhing of them might redound unto the Church thereby. Which as it evidently appeared to be the authours meaning, not onely in that he was contented, during his life time, that any ſhould ſee them, and certaine men copie out ſome of them, but alſo in that he was reſolved in time to have committed ſome of them to the preſſe: ſo my ſelfe in his ſtead have laboured to effect this good purpoſe of his, by commending to the Church of God theſe firſt fruits of his labours: hoping in time that the reſt may folow, if the paucitie of Hebrue & Greeke characters in this land do not hinder ſome, and the great coſt and charges of Printing Maps be a ſtay and bane to others.

For

For as in both theſe kindes there are certaine of his labours finiſhed, and have bene longe ſince readie for the preſſe, as it is vvell knowne unto manie: ſo if they ſhould bee ſtayed from beeing publiſhed uppon theſe onelie cauſes, (which I woulde bee lothe, in reſpecte of the greate commoditie that all ſtudentes (eſpeciallie of divinitie) ſhoulde bee deprived thereby) which I ſay, if it ſhoulde ſo come to paſſe, yet I am right glad that this is not ſuppreſſed alſo, but hath libertie to come abroade, vvhich in his kinde promiſeth not in vaine, great hope of fruite to all them that have or ſhall travayle in the knovvledge of hiſtories of vvhat kinde ſoever: and by vvhich you may eaſilie, as by a patterne, judge of vvhat beautie and excellencie the reſt are, vvhiche are of that broode. Whiche comming foorth later than I looked for, and late indeede, as a childe, thoughe not borne out of due ſeaſon, yet after the fathers deathe, and ſo vvanting by that meanes his patronage, vvho for his greate readinge vvas able to manage and defende it on everie ſide, lyeth nowe open ſo muche the more, (eſpeciallie in theſe gain-ſaying tymes, wherein nothing can be ſo well ſpoken or written, that can long vvante an adverſarie) unto the contradiction of ill men: ſaving that the bare name of him, that was the authour of it, ſhall purchaſe ſufficient credite for it with all thoſe, vvho knewe him to bee a man for his greate varietie of learning, beſides his excellent wiſedome and godlineſſe, with his unweariſome and endleſſe paynes in preaching the Goſpell, for the ſpace of twentie yeares at the leaſte, wherein hee went beyonde many, and verie fewe vvere æquall with him, knewe him, I ſay, vvoorthie to bee reverenced and maintayned in all his godlie and learned proceedinges. Amonge whome, your Lordſhippe and all your Worſhippes, with the reſte of that citie, in vvhich hee almoſte begunne, at leaſtwiſe continued and ended his preaching almoſt twentie yeares, are ſufficient and credible witneſſes, the laſt indeed in that reſpecte, but not the leaſte: which mooveth me to crave of you the protection of theſe his labours, againſte all ſclaunderous and cavilling tongues, which in theſe dayes are too ryfe: and to confirme unto him in this, as it were his off-ſpring, hee nowe beeing deade, that honourable and worſhipfull favour, which you to himſelfe oftentymes teſtifyed, vvhiles hee lived. And namelie I commende it unto your Lordſhippe firſte, under vvhoſe governement hee happelie enjoyed greate libertie in his miniſterie, vvhich vvas his joy and his lyfe, and in that reſpect received manie incouragementes to this and all other his labours, and ſo at the laſte, vvith much comforte to himſelfe, though with no leſſe griefe unto manie, peaceablie ended his dayes. Then I commende it unto your WORSHIPPE, and all the reſte of your companie, to whom hee meant living and dying, as your ſelves beſt knovve, all the good that he might, who therefore have juſte tytle and intereſt into all the fruites of his labour. Who as you ſhewed unto him in his lyfe and in his death, manie teſtimonies of your deſerved love, to the good example of other cities and townes: so I am sure he vvas purposed to deserve it unto the full, if hee had not done it alreadie: Wherein, if hee hath fayled, beeing prevented by untimelie death, let this also be put into his reckoninges, and I hope you will easilie forgive the remainder, if there bee anie.

It comes unto your LORDSHIPS and your WORSHIPPES hands naked and bare, yet whole and perfect, as it vvas left by himselfe, without addition, substraction, or anie the least alteration: What profite soever may come by it, the whole praise is dewe unto him onelie next under GOD: If anie thing bee amisse (as who may not erre?) therein I crave pardon for him: as also for my selfe, if I have presumed too farre in publishing this booke under the favour of your LORDSHIP and your WORSHIPPES. And thus praying God for your LORDSHIP still to shewe all good countenance and defence to those that seeke the building up of the kingdome of Christ, as this holie man did, that manie may haue more cause to blesse God for you: and praying for your WORSHIP with your worshipful brethren, that the worke of GOD begunne and continued among you by the ministerie of this rare servant of God, may never die in your hearts: and therefore that it would please him to that end, to adde unto those that you have, many more such MORES, if there be more, by whose ministerie and labour it might have lyfe still, and grouth unto the end: I humbly take my leaue of you all. Norton in Suffolke 24. August. 1593.

Your Lordships, and all your Worships most humble in the Lord.

NICHOLAS BOVVND.

THE WAY to knowe what times of the Worlde the thinges that be mentioned in prophane Histories were done, is this: namely, we muſt bring them to that account which is ſet downe in Scriptures, from the beginning of the Worlde till the ſuffering of Chriſt, moſt exactly, and ſo labour to make the times of forreine histories to agree with that account of the holy Scripture; and not cleane contrarie, to wring the account in holy Scripture unto the account of prophane writers, as many Chronographers have done hitherto. And unto this exact account of holy Scriptures may the true account of prophane matters be brought verie eaſily in this manner.

It is of all generallie graunted that our Lord Iesus suffred in the xviij. yeare of the raigne of TIBERIVS the Emperour vvhich yeare of Christes suffering, vvas the yeare of the VVorlde 3961. as yee shall see truelie prooved hereafter in the Table following from the computation of Scriptures. Nowe all Histories doe agree that this eighteenth yeare of TIBERIVS, vvas 784. after the building of ROME. So reckon vpward from this yeare of the VVorlde 3961. those 784 yeares of ROME builded, and you finde that ROME vvas builded the yeare of the VVorlde 3178. vvhich vvas in the dayes of AMATSIAH King of Iudah. And so reckon further still upward till the destruction of Troy, 340. yeares, and yee finde that Troy vvas destroyed in the yeare of the VVorld 2838. in the dayes of ELON Iudge of Israell, twelve yeares before SAMSON. And so doe for the beginning of the Olympiades, vvhich was twentie foure yeares before ROME was builded, and you see it falleth into the yeare

of the worlde 3154. which was in the dayes of IOASH King of Iudah. And in like manner doe so of all other histories to bring them to their due and right time.

A TABLE FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE VVORLD TO THIS DAY.

THE MOST CERTEN way to gather the account of yeres from the beginning of the world, is by the Scriptures. For the Scriptures doe note the account of the yeeres moſt certenly, from the beginning of the world, till the ſuffering of Chriſt; in this manner following.

WORLD was made by the eternall God. Geneſ 1. verſ. 1. 2. 3. 4.

SEM can not be borne when his father was five hundreth hundreth yeeres old, but two yeeres after. For two yeeres after the Flood he is said to be but an hundreth yeeres olde. Gen. 11. 10. when his father Noah was sixe hundred and two. Genes. 7. 6. & 10. 10. Sem was not therefore the eldest sonne of Noah, but is onely named first: because the historie of the Church is continued in his line. But Iapheth is the eldest. Genes 10. 21. And Ham is the yongest. Genes. 9. 25. The same is to be said of Abraham, who is not eldest, though first named.

PRO-

World	Flood
2083	427	PROMISE was nowe made to Abraham. Gen. 12.7,4. & 16.3.16.

So that from the FLOOD untill the PROMISE made to Abraham be 427 yeeres: whereof 352 yeares vntill the birth of Abraham, be gathered, Genes. 11. 10. &c. as in the Table before appeareth. And from the birth of Abraham, vntill he received the promise be 75 yeares: which make in all 427 yeares.

When Abraham was no more but seventie five yeares old, his father died, Genes. 12.4. being then at his death 205 yeares old, Genes. 11.32. whereby it appeareth that Abraham was not born, till his father was an hundred and thirtie yeares olde. And therefore we must reckon from Terahs birth till Abrahams birth 130 yeeres, and no lesse and not seventie yeeres as most of the Chronologers have hitherto done, being deceived: and by that meanes have omitted 60 yeeres of the age of the world in their computation.

Nowe where as Moſes ſaith, Exod. 12. 40. that the abode of Iſrael in Egypt was 430. yeeres, it can not be counted from Iakobs going downe into Egypt. For the whole time of their beeing in Egypt, though it be reckoned to the utmoſt, can not be above 240. yeeres. For Moſes was but 80. yeeres olde, when he brought them out of Egypt. Exod. 7. 10. and his

And therfore Moses in that place Exod. 12. 40. meaneth not onely of their being in Egypt, but also includeth since the time that the promise was given to Abraham: at which time he began to bee a straunger from his owne land in a land not his owne. 2994	480	TEMPLE was builded by Salomon in his fourth yeere. 480 yeeres after their comming out of Egypt. 1.King.6.1.

SO that from the LAW given, or the Comming of Israel out of Ægypt, till the TEMPLE beganne to be builded, be 480. yeeres, 1. King. 6. 1. and as ye have seene gathered in the former Table, by the yeeres of the Iudges.

Nowe whereas Paul (Actes 13. 20.) sayth, about foure hundred fiftie yeeres were Iudges untill Samuel, he reckoneth not the yeeres of the Iudges only, but also includeth the yeeres from their deliverance from Ægypt, and setteth downe also no certen number, but about such a number. Or else he reckoneth the yeeres wherein they were oppressed under the Iudges by the Cananytes, Moabites, and other

their

their enemies: he reckoneth (I say) those yeeres over and besides the yeres of the reigne of the Iudges: and then that amounteth iust to that summe of foure hundred fiftie yeeres: whereas they are to be reckoned in the number of the yeeres of the reigne of the Iudges: and then the yeeres under the Iudges till Samuel be three hundred thirtie nine yeeres, fewer then the other summe mentioned Actes 13. 20. by 111 yeeres. For it is evident by the Genealogie of David, Matth. 1.5. that so large a number of foure hundred and fiftie from Iosuah to Samuel can not be gathered. For Rahab which hid the spyes, was mother to Boos, great Grandfather to David. Nowe though Rahab should bring foorth Boos at threescore yeeres old, and Boos at 120 yeeres olde should beget Obed of Ruth, and Obed at 120 begat Iesse, & Iesse at 120 begat David, yet the number commeth farre short of foure hundred and fiftie which Paul speaketh of. Wherefore it is certen that the number mentioned 1. King. 6. 1. numbreth iust from their comming out of Ægipt till the building of the Temple, and that Paul reckoneth onely about such a number without any certenty.

The yeeres which Iosuah reigned, be not expressed in Scripture, but they may be by deducting all the other certen numbers from the 480. yeeres till the Temple: and so the yeeres remaining be eighteene yeeres, which must be given to the yeeres of the reigne of Iosuah. Moreover Iosuah is sayd to be olde, Iosh. 13. 1. when he had reigned but seven yeeres, Iosh. 14. 10. Therefore it can not be, that he reigned any long time. He dyed at an hundred and tenne yeeres olde, Iudg. 2. 8. Iosh. 24. 29.

The CAPTIVITIE began the fourth year of Iehoiachim. Ier. 25. 1. at which time Daniel and other nobles were caried captive. Dan. 11. 2. and Iehoiachin himselfe also with the holie vessels was brought to Babylon. 2. Chron. 36. 6. yet Iehoiachim was sent back, swearing true obedience. 2. King. 24. 1. 2. this was the first yeare of Nebuchadnezar. Ier. 25. 1. although 8. yeares after this, at the second comming of the Chaldæans, he was cast out unburied, without the gates of Ieruſalem. Ierem. 22. 19. The same yeare of the Captivitie begunne, was Iechoniah borne. Mat. 1. 11. For he was 8. years old when he began to raigne, and was caried captive. 2. Chron. 36. 9. 2. King. 24. 12. By this then it is plaine, that the captivity began before Iechoniah eight yeares, and therefore it is not to be begunne at his captivitie, or after, at the destruction of the temple I doe agree to have the Captivitie begin here at the 4. year of Iehoiachims raign, because together with these plaine testimonies the yeare of Iubilee will fall just upon the yere of Christs suffring by this account, namelie, the yeare of the world. 3961.

Nebuchadnezar raigned 45. yeares. Evilmerodach raigned with his father, while he was mad, ten yeares, and alone after his father, twentie yeares: in all thirtie yeares, Metasten. Regazar, Labarsadach, and Balthazar raigned one after another, with their father Evilmerodach, twelve yeares, which are all reckoned in Evilmerodachs raigne. Balthazar reigned alone five yeares. So that from the DELIVERANCE out of Babylon till the MESSIAH slaine, bee 70. Sevens, or weekes of yeares, which make 490. yeares. Dan. 9. 24. 25. These weeks must needes begin at the verie end of seventie yeares of their captivitie, or els the analogie of their their seventie yeares captivitie, & seven times seventie years libertie, which the Prophet of purpose so termeth, could not stand: & also the comfort (which is the chief purpose of the place) were not so forceablie brought, according to the meaning of the Angell, if there were anie meane time between the seventie yeares end of captivitie and the beginning of the seventie sevens of libertie. And also the text maketh it plaine, deviding the seventie sevens first into seven sevens from the commaundement of bringing backe the people, till the building the walles of the citie, which was 49. yeares, for so long was the temple in finishing. Iohn. 2. 28. then sixtie two sevens, and after that the MESSIAH to be slaine. Now it is evident, that this number of 490. yeares, which the Angell speaketh of, may be gathered also out of the Historiographers, either in one or other of them by the raigne of their kings. For although there bee greate disagreement among the histories about the yeares, and also about the kinges themselves which raigned, yet out of their severall writings thus disagreeing one from another, we may easilie make up amongst them this certaine number of 490. yeares here mentioned, which I have also done, as yee may see in the Table immediatelie going before. This diversitie ariseth hereof, because the kings in their absence used to make their sonnes kings. So Cambyses with his father Cyrus reigned, and so Xerxes with his sonne. Or els they would call king in their life time that sonne that should next succeed them, for avoyding of civill warre.

So

So Artaxart Mnemon with his father had the name of king, for fear of his brother Cyrus. By this wiked means the yeares of the Persian monarchie be but 130. yeres: where most writers give them 181. some 200. and some more. But the sureſt account is by the Angell here, who cannot lie, and so to correct the diversitie of writers by this writer, who wrote by Gods spirite, and not to controll him by their uncertainties, as moste of the Chronographers hitherto have done, stretching out thereby the age of the world almoste an hundred yeares more than it is. That writer therfore, who could not lie, sheweth that from the DELIVERANCE till the MESSIAH, be 70. sevens, or weekes, that is, 490. yeares. whereof 136. were of the Persians, till the death of Alexander the great as ye may see in the table going before. Againe, from his death, till the death of Iulius Cæsar, and the beginning of the Empire of Octavius Augustus, all histories agree to bee 280. yeares. For Alexander dyed Olympiad 114. and Augustus began to raigne 184. Olympiad. which make 280. yeares. Now from Augustut till Christ slaine, bee 74. namely the raigne of Augustus 56. and of Tiberius 18. all which together make 490. in this maner gathered, that is, the Persians till Alexanders death, 136. from Alexander till Augustus 280. from hence till Christs death 74. So the whole sum is, 490. which the Angell truhe foreshewed, and by forraine histories also thus truelie gathered.

CYRVS, as say the Greeke writers, raigned 29. yeares: but of those 29. he raigned alone before hee conquered Babylon 21. yeares, & 2. with Darius (as sayth Metasthenes) and 6. in the Scythian warres with Cambyses, as saith Metasthenes.

CAMBYSES, as say the Greek writers, raigned 7 yeares: but 6. of them were with his father Cyrus. Hee raigned alone but a while, and the Magi after him but a while. And therefore both Cambyses and the Magi are left out, and not named by Metasthenes.

DARIVS HISTASPIS Artaxart Assuerus raigned 20. yeares, as saith Metasthenes and Philo: although the Greek writers give him 36.

XERXES succeeding next to Histaspis, is cleane left out by Metasth. and Philo, because of his continuall warres in Greece & Ægypt, whereby he was most part of his lyfe absent: and his yeares are reckoned with his son Longiman 20. yeares: or els they are reckoned with his father, because he was killed by Artabanus before his fathers death, as some think.

DARIVS Artaxart Longiman with his father Xerxes raigned 20. yeares, and alone 16. yeres, in al 36. yeares, as say Metasthenes and Philo: but the Greeke writers give him 40. yeares.

DARIVS Artaxart Mnemon raigned 21. yeares after the Greek writers, b[illegible] 11. of thē ar reckoned with his father, who made him raigne with him while he lived, because of his other son Cyrus, a jollie warriour. Other Greek writers give him 40. yeares, Metasth. and Philo give him 55. such uncertaintie is ther among the writers. He raigned alone but ten yeares. Of the rest of the kings there is no difficultie.

ATHENS.

THE kingdome of ATHENS began by CECROPS the first king, about the tyme of Moses, 2470. and so continued governed by kings about 460. yeares, til CODRVS the last king: about the time of David: and then it was governed by a Magistrate for terme of lyfe, the space of 246. yeares, till about the time of Amatziah: and then it was governed by a decennall Magistrate, that is, such a one as ruled ten yeares, and another then chosen to succeed him so long, this govern ment continued 70. yeres, til about the time of Iotham. Next after this, they had annuall Magistrates, such as were chosen everie yeare. This government continued the space of 380. yeares in flourishing estate, till the Lacedamonians overcame them, and set ouer them thirtie tyrantes to rule them, about the time of Darius Mnetyrantes to rule them, about the time of Darius Mnemon, the yeare of the world, 3560. untill that Thrasibulus obtained them libertie, by overcomming the 30. tyrants, with the aide of such as fled from Athens. After this the Thebanes overcame the Lacedemonians. and at length Philip king of Macedonie overcame both them, and all Grecia besides, and brought them all under one kingdome, the yeare of the world 3607. And last of all, the Romanes (amongst other parts of the world) subdued all Grecia, the yeare of the world 3894. and so continued under the Empire, almost 1500. yeares, even till the great Turke conquered them, the yeare of the worlde 5380. which was the yeare after Christes birth 1452. & so they continue til this day. And thus much touching the estate of Athēs particularly, & of al Grece generally.

ARABIANS.

ARABIANS called also AGARENS and SARACENS being in wages under HERACLIVS the Emp. did rebel for want of their pay, about the year of Christ 630. within 30. yeres: they cõquered al Syria, Damascus, Ierusalem, much of Assyria, and the most part of Asia, subduing them to the religion of Mahomet, which was then but newlie broched, and of these Saracens first of all other people received. Vnto these Saracens, the Ægyptians also, shaking of the yoke of the Empire, yelded themselves, and received wholie their religion about the yeare of Christ 703. These Saracens having now gotten so large a dominion, devided themselves into severall governments, and called their chiefe Lord CALIPHA, their next SERIPHE and the next a SVLTAN, which is over everie province. The Saracens in Persia continued but till the yeare of Christ 830. that they were driven out by the Turkes into Africa. The Saracens in Ægypt and Syria continewed their government til the rascall captives subdued them, about the yeare of Christ 2203. and afterward the great Turke conquered them 1515.

EGYPT.

EGYPT unto the dayes of Iacob had one after another sixteene severall Governments, and then the seventeenth was of Pastors, as they called them, which kind of government continued 163 yeares, till about the tyme that Moses was borne; and then the eighteenth government was of Polytanes: which continewed 206 yeares yeares, till about the daies of Ioshua. Then began the goverument of Larthi, the nienteeth, which continued 194. yeares, till about the tyme of Sampson. Then the twentieth government, which was of Diopolitanes, continued 275. yeares, till the dayes of Rehoboam. Then the one and twentieth Government, which continued also 275. yeares, till the daies of Ezekiah. Then the two and twentith government, which was of twelve Dukes t gethether, for 15. yeres. and then kings til it was overcome by the Chaldæans, the yeare of the world 3418. and then by the Persians, 3485. and then by Alexander the great, 3600. and after his death it gat the former liberrie of a kingdome, and so continued under the Ptolomees almost 300. yeares, till Pompeius conquered it to the Romanes, 3880. and so continued above 700 yeres: and received the faith of Christ by the Evangelist Mark, until wearied with the yoke of the Romanes, they submitted themselves unto the Saracens, and receiwed also their religon, the yeare after Christ 703. And so continued Saracens above 400. yeares, till the Sultan of Syria conquered them, the yeare of Christ, 1170. and made himself Sultan of Ægypt also. So it remained til the multitude of captives, which had bene brought from the Tartarians for his warres, growing mightie, killed the Sultan, and took to themselves the kingdom of Ægypt, the yeare of Christ 1203. They called their king Turquemenius, and ordained them warriours, which they called Mamaluchi, which were christiãs that had denied their faith: much lyke to the Ianizarites about the Turk at this day. They conquered also all Asia the lesse, from the Sultan of Asia, and called it Turkia. Thus they conti nued til Zelimus the great Turk conquered Ægypt, the yeare of Christ 1517. and so destroyed that government of the Mamaluchies. So it remaineth till this day under the Turke, holding also the same religion of Mahomet, as doe also all the East for the most part.

GOTHES.

GOTHES by Valence the Emperour called to inhabite Thrace, the yeare of Christ, 371. were driven from thence to Constantinople by Theodosius the Emperour, the yeare of Christ 388. and continued 18. yeares in wages to the Emperour without anie king, till the daies of Honorius the Emperour: they revolted and did choose them a king called Alarichus, the yeare of Christ 404. and got Rome within ten yeares after. Afterward Alarich Autulphus was their king, and maried Placida sister to Honorius, by whose persuasion Autulphus her husband was staied from sacking of Rome the second tyme. In the end by composition they were contented to depart to Gallia Narbon. But within sixe yeres they were driven from thence by Constantine the lievtenant, into that part of Spaine, which Vandals had before them: where peace being concluded, they had also Gascoin, with certaine other cities, the yeare of Christ, 422. After this they obtained the whole monarchie of Spaine, the yeare of our Lord 640. till the Saracens got the most part of the land, and inhabited it, the yeare of Christ 720. the rest occupying but a part, called Astyre and Castle, and could never expell the Saracens till the yeare of our Lord 1340. that Alphonse king of Castile utterlie subdued them. After him Ferdinand utterlie ex-expelled thē from the kingdom of Granado, & brought Granado to the faith of Christ, the yeare of our Lord, 1487. These Gothes were Arrians, till they were converted, the yere of Christ 592. They came from Denmark.

IERVSALEM.

IERVSALEM was first wonne from the Romane Emperour by the Persians, the yeare of our Lorde 615. and from the Persians by the Saracens, the yeare of our Lord 637. Vnder the Saracens it continued till the yeare of our Lord 1009. that the Turkes wan it. Immediatelie, afterward, the Sultane of Ægypt wan it from the Turkes, and kept it til Godfrey of Bollain, a Chtistian conquered it, and all Asia, the yeare of our Lord, 1099. He kept it till Saladinus the Sultan of Ægypt gat it from the Christians, the yeare of our Lord 1187. and kept it till the yeare of our Lord 1229. So that the Christians never after had anie part of those places.

LOMBARDS.

LOMBARDS, a people of Denmark, Sweden, and Norway, came into Pannonia, now called Hungaria, the yeare of our Lord, 526. they were sent for into Italie by Narses, captaine under Iustinus the second, the yere of our Lord 566: they gate al Italie, save Rome and Ravēna, the yere of our Lord 570. & possessed the same above 200 yeares, til Charles the great utterlie subdued them, in the yeare of Christ, 784. This people were also called Herulians.

OSTGOTHES.

OSTGOTHES drove out of Pannonia (nowe called Hungarie) Einacus sonne to Attalus the Hun, and there did inhabite with a few Hunnes, the yeare of our Lord 459. till with Theodoricke their king, they were sent for by Zeno the Emperour, (the yeare of our Lord 490) against Odoacre the Herulian, who had kept Rome 15. yeares from the Emperour. This Theodorick with his Gothes and Hunnes conquered all Italie, expelled the Herulians, and Odoacre their king, and as king of Italie and Rome, he and his successours raigned 58. yeares, till the daies of Justinian the Emperour, that after 18. yeares of continuall warre with Bellizarius, captaine under Iustinian, they were at length expelled out of Italie into Spaine, the rest utterlie slaine and destroied, the yeare of our Lord 554. Both these Gothes were people of a part of Denmark bordering upon Livonia and Lituania. They were all Arrians, taught by an Arrian bishop first, in the daies of Valens Emperour.

PERSIANS.

PERSIANS shaking off the yoke of the Romane Empire, about the yeare of the Lord 228. lived in continual warre with the Empire, till they were conquered by the Saracens the yeare of Christ 634. And so continued Saracens, til the Turks, whom they had sent for to ayde them against the Babylonian Sultan, expelled the Saracens out of Persia, into Italie, Spaine, and Afrik the yeare of Christ, 830. where for the most part, they doe yet remaine. These Turkes inioyed Persia, till the Georgians,or Gregorians expelled them to Cappadocia, the yeare of Christ, 1100. Which Georgians, I think, be the people, which inhabite the Kingdome of Persia at this day.

ROME.

ROME was builded after the destruction of Troy, 340. yeares, as may be trulie gathered by Virgil, Æneid. lib. 1. and by Titus Livius lib. 1. unto which authors we ought to give credite writing of their owne matters, rather than to other forraine histories, which could not be so well acquainted with the estate of other kingdoms strange from their owne.

The EMPIRE of Rome, after the death of Constantine the Great, was devided into the East and West Empire. The East Empire continued till the great Turke overcame it, the yeare of Christ 1463. The West Empire the yeare of Christ 480. and Odoacre an Herulian conquered Italie, and raigned with the Herulians as king 15. yeares, till Theodoricke with the Ostgothes, hyred out of Pannonia by Zeno the Emperour, conquered the land, expelling Odoacre and the Herulians, and as king of Italie, he and his successours raigned 58. yeares, till after 18. yeares continuall warre with Belizarius captaine to Iustinian Emperour, they were utterlie suppressed. and the land brought to the East Empire, the yeare of Christ 554. by Narses, who governed them under the East Empire 16 yeares, till in dread of the second Iustin Emperour, who by the perswasion of the Empresse Sophia had put him to his pension, he sent for the Lombards out of Pannonia, who entred the land, and in short time conque-quered all Italie, saving the dition of Rome and Ravenna, which remained still under the Empire of the East, governed by Magistrates which were called Exarchi. The rest of Italie the Lombardes kept the space of 200. yeares and more, till Charles the Great, at the request of Pope Hadrian, utterlie subdued them, and the Exarchies, giving the Exarchie of Rome and Ravenna, with some other cities unto the Pope the yere of Christ, 772. and kept the rest of Italie unto himselfe. So did he revive againe the West Empire, making himselfe the first Emperour, and so continued until the yeare of our Lord 892. and then the Berengarians usurped it 70. yeares. After them the Germane Emperours continued the Empire as it is, till this day.

Rome, after the West Empire began to decaie, was miserablie handle by the Barbarous people. It was foure times sacked within 140. yeares: first, by Alanus the Goth, under Honorius the Emperour, the yeare of our Lord 412. Then Genserick the Vandall vnder Martianus, about the yeare of our Lord 150. Thirdlie, by Totilas the Goth it was utterlie burned up, under Iustinian the Emperour, the yeare of our Lord, 549. And againe by the same Totilas, the yeare of Christ, 551.

VANDALES.

THe VANDALES were by Bonifacius the Captaine, fearing his Emperour Valentinian, called into Africa, and had by Valentinian a certaine part of the land appointed them. But after his death, they with their king Genserick rebelled from the Emperour, spoiled and sacked Rome, the yeere of our Lord 457. carying the spoile to Africa. Being Arians they persecuted the Christians miserablie the space of 50 yeres, till the yere of our Lord 523. And within eleven yeres after this they were utterlie subdued in Africa by Belizarins, the yeare of Christ 534. They were people about Denmarke and Hamborough, which came and dwelt about Hungarie, then in Germany, after in Gallia, from whence they were driven out into Spaine, where they remained till they were called into Africa: where they were at length destroyed, the yeare of our Lord 534. They were Arians.

and
